OBITUARY. Edmond A. Parent.

Edmond A. Parent, mailing clerk at the Willimantic post office and the oldest employer in the local postal staff in number of years of service died early Friday morning at his home 49 Ash street, after a long illness. Mail Clerk Parent was for over a quarter and O. K., but says it was a terrible of a century connected with the Willimantic post office, and served under five different postmasters, and at one time was a substitute in the ranway mail service. Mr. Parent was a native of Wauregan, Conn., the of Honore and Clemence (Bourque) Parent. He would have been 49 years old Sept. supply in Sylvandale, Friday's Bulle-At one time he conducted a tea stone at the corner of Jackson and Union streets. Mr. Parent entered the tem. It should have been Burleson post office service under Postmaster Water system. Henry Wales' administration. When Harrison was elected president and Charles N. Daniels became postmaster Mr. Parent remained as mailing clerk for a time. There being no civil service law in effect in those days, another man was appointed in Ma. Par-ent's place. When Cleveland was reelected and Joel Webb became postmaster Mr. Parent was reappointed. He took the civil service examinations then and remained in constant service from that time on serving through the administrations of Mr. Webb, M. Eugene Lincoln and Charles H. Dimmick. For years Mr. Parent was local secretary of the Civil Service commission and secretary of the local branch of the United Postoffice Clerks' association and a member of the Postoffice Employes' club of this city. Mr. Parent was efficient and gaithful in the performance of his duties as mailclerk. On account of ill health he left his work sixty days ago when he broke down. Mr. Parent was a charter member of San Jose council, No. 14, Knights of Columbus and had held various offices in the society. His
